Xenia Valderi as La Giornalista She participated with her sister Benedicta Boccoli at 1989 Sanremo Music Festival with the song "Stella". Don Costantino leaves the priesthood after falling in love with a woman who does not return his feelings. Consequently, his mother forces him to take refuge in a family-owned lighthouse, where she hopes to hide his broken vows from a judgmental village. However, isolation proves impossible. As several people trickle into the building—including his humiliated brother-in-law, a former prostitute, a lesbian couple, and an eccentric renovation crew hiding their own domestic crises—the lighthouse transforms into a sanctuary for social outcasts. United by scandal and marginalization, this dysfunctional assembly bands together to turn the crumbling fortress into a cozy hotel, providing them with an opportunity to rebuild their futures and seek personal redemption, while finally leaving society's prejudices behind.
