Kickback (finance) Generally speaking, the remuneration (money, goods, or services handed over) for a kickback is negotiated ahead of time. The kickback varies from other kinds of bribes in that there is implied collusion between agents of the two parties, rather than one party extorting the bribe from the other. The term often connotes a secret or illegal payment, such as a form of negotiated bribery in which a commission is secretly paid to the person who arranges a deal. For example, in the United States, companies providing medical services to Medicare patients were paying doctors to send A kickback is a payment that partially offsets a larger payment in another direction. Kickback schemes can be pervasive. The purpose of the kickback is usually to encourage the other party to cooperate in the scheme 709f6f2dfa
