The following novels were released each year afterward, with the exception of the fourth and fifth novels, Dark Days and Mortal Coil, which were both released in 2010. Reading Run (cricket) and Laws of cricket, I was unclear: do the batsmen always have to run whenever the ball is hit, or if it's really weakly hit, can they just stand still? In other words, does cricket have something comparable to baseball's force out?

Fails WP:Verifiability: I tried looking. The article has not even one source that this program existed as an actual radio program. There's not even decent proof the radio stations themselves exist. I've tried looking for it; I found some mention that Trevecca Nazarene University owned an unlicensed station somewhere, but that was it. There are vague claims like "according to the FCC" and "The Tennessean covered this scandal extensively"; there's no evidence either of those are true. (When I tried to clarify the stations, it was reverted.) 80e8b68379
