The film utilizes a handheld style to follow a year in the life of American rapper DMX following his 2019 release from federal prison. It examines his efforts to rebuild his music career and reconnect with family, while contextualizing his struggles through his turbulent childhood in Yonkers, New York 2dda7aa8c9

It also tracks his life, from his rough upbringing in Yonkers, New York, to his successful debut in the late 1990s. The documentary contextualizes Earl Simmons' 2019 comeback by tracking his origins in the School Street housing projects of Yonkers, where he relocated with his family at five years old. The film explores how his childhood was severely marred by poverty... 2dda7aa8c9
