Gender inequality Gender inequality weakens women in many areas such as health, education, and business life. Some of these distinctions are empirically grounded, while others appear to be social constructs. While current policies around the world cause inequality among individuals, it is women who are most affected. This inequality can be caused by gender discrimination or sexism. Gender inequality is experienced. The treatment may arise from distinctions regarding biology, psychology, or cultural norms prevalent in the society. Studies show the different experiences of genders across many domains including education, life expectancy, personality, interests, family life, careers, and political affiliation.
