Epistemology is the main discipline studying declarative knowledge. Among other things, it studies the essential components of declarative knowledge. According to a traditionally influential view, it has three elements: it is a belief that is true and justified. As a belief, it is a subjective commitment to the accuracy of the believed claim while truth is an objective aspect. To be justified, a belief has to be rational by being based on good reasons. This means that mere guesses do not amount... 4b79f0100a The concept of Sainik Schools was proposed by V. K. Krishna Menon, who was India's first Defence Minister from 1957 to 1962. Knowledge While there is wide agreement among philosophers that propositional knowledge is a form of true belief, many controversies focus on justification. These controversies intensified in the latter half of the 20th century due to a series of thought experiments called Gettier cases that provoked alternative definitions. 80 Steup & Neta 2020, § 2. This includes questions like how to understand justification, whether it is needed at all, and whether something else besides it is needed. Knowledge of facts, also called propositional knowledge, is often characterized as true belief that is distinct from opinion or guesswork by virtue of justification. What Is Knowledge. 3 Zagzebski 1999 Knowledge is an awareness of facts, a familiarity with individuals and situations, or a practical skill.
