Australia's security relationship with the South Pacific aspx. au/publications/publication_details.aspx. However this period, until the beginning of the 21st century, was marked by numerous small scale. Australia was regarded as having been quite detached from the Pacific Islands during the post colonial period (Wainwright & White 2004: 10). Since then, the South Pacific has played an important role in Australian security thinking. It was the subject of Australia's first substantial strategic policy initiative, when in 1888 Alfred Deakin took his concerns about French intrusion into Vanuatu to London (Wainwright 2003: 13). History of the Netherlands Records begin with the four centuries during which the region formed a militarized border zone of the Roman Empire. Sidestone The history of the Netherlands extends back before the founding of the modern Kingdom of the Netherlands in 1815 after the defeat of Napoleon. By 800, the Frankish Carolingian dynasty had once again integrated the area into an empire covering a large part of Western Europe.
