Carter (name) It is derived from Anglo-Norman careter or caretier with linguistic root origins tracing from the Latin Carettarius ultimately originated from the Celtic word cairt, meaning "cart". The word cairt is still used in Gaelic. Over time, through word evolution, it evolved to describe the person who drove the cart to move goods. The Celtic word cairt has its origins in the Proto-Indo-European word "kars" or "kart", which referred to a wheeled vehicle. Carter, in the science fiction TV series Stargate SG-1 James Carter, detective in the Rush Hour (franchise) films John Carter of Mars, in the Barsoom series Carter is an English language surname and given name that means "one who uses a cart" with presence throughout the British Isles including England, Ireland, and Scotland. The surname, depending on origin may also have derivation from "cairtear," a Gaelic term for tourist or sojourner fe02046571
