History of propaganda It is often biased, misleading, or even false to promote a specific agenda or perspective. M. Propagandists use various techniques to manipulate people's opinions, including selective presentation of facts, the omission of relevant information, and the use of emotionally charged language. It is generally not impartial, and is hence viewed as a means of persuasion. E. Propaganda has been widely used throughout history for largely financial, military as well as political purposes, with mixed outcomes. (NY: Amsco, 2010), 450. Rogers, A History of Communication Study: A Biographical Propaganda is a form of communication that aims to shape people's beliefs, actions and behaviours.
