Wikipedia:Unusual articles If you wish to add an article to this list, the article in question should preferably meet one or more of these criteria:. An elaborate flat Earth map drawn in 1893 Vegetable Lamb Of the over seven million articles in the English Wikipedia, there are some articles that Wikipedians have identified as being somewhat unusual. Atomicus Maintenance of Mount Rushmore One million colors Keep your hands to yourself. We should take special care to meet the highest standards of an encyclopedia with these articles lest they make Wikipedia appear idiosyncratic. Like a fly on. These articles are verifiable, valuable contributions to the encyclopedia, but are a bit odd, whimsical, or something one would not expect to find in Encyclopædia Britannica 7b088c1ffe

Thr main possibilities seem to be either hiding the banners somehow, or adding our own banners above or below with the vision of this RfC about the "official" banners. Both may lead to WMF intervention (on a technical level and against people attempting to implement the RfC results), but that would be an extremely unwise move from the WMF judging from previous such incidents. 7b088c1ffe I'm somewhat opposed to completely re-designing the main page; millions of readers and editors are already used to it, and it's served effectively for several years without any issues. -Juliancolton | Talk 03:08, 14 August 2009 (UTC) 7b088c1ffe This is my second attempt to gain this article featured status, the last attempt was at Wikipedia:Featured list candidates/List of Northwest Territories capitals in October 2005 7b088c1ffe Thoughts? Then what? Asking the WMF to delay the fundraising or skip a year on enwiki seem extremely unlikely to have any chance of success. If people want to pursue that angle, feel free of course, but I think we should decide on what action to take otherwise. 7b088c1ffe The last nomination failed due to lack of plurality in support, there were no objections brought forward, but one comment suggested it might be better as a featured article then a list. I have revamped and renamed the page since, and put it through a Peer Review here.

But my personal choice of how I view the main page has nothing to do with the design seen by millions every day, that gives off the initial impression to visitors. iMatthew talk at 02:53, 14 August 2009 (UTC) 7b088c1ffe Currently, articles that are protected from editing have the relevant lock in the top right hand corner. Userpages may not have the relevant edit lock on the top right. With regarding edit protection, it will stay as it is but why don't we do the same for move, create and upload so that articles (other than user pages) require all types of protection to be shown on the top right. The lock icon will display in the same way shown in the protection policy page (linked above). With move protection, the only way to tell that the page is protected is if the move button is not seen (this article for example, doesn't have the move button for me, but it does have subscribe) with the possible exception for administrators as they can move any page even if it's protected.
