Holistic grading This type of grading, which is also described as nonreductionist grading, contrasts with analytic grading, which takes more factors into account when assigning a grade. J. (1982). And it uses two or more raters, with the final score derived. Holistic grading can also be used to assess classroom-based work. Notes from the National Testing Network in Holistic grading or holistic scoring, in standards-based education, is an approach to scoring essays using a simple grading structure that bases a grade on a paper's overall quality. Rubin, S. It treats the composition as a whole, not assigning separate values to different parts of the writing. It differs from other methods of scoring written discourse in two basic ways. Rather than counting errors, a paper is judged holistically and often compared to an anchor paper to evaluate if it meets a writing standard. "The Florida College-Level Academic Skills Project: Testing Communication Skills Statewide"
