Donny Hathaway was also posthumously honored with a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award in 2019. The album was a critical and commercial success. Donny Edward Hathaway (October 1, 1945 – January 13, 1979) was an American soul singer, keyboardist, songwriter, backing vocalist, and arranger who Rolling Stone described as a "soul legend". His most popular songs include "The Ghetto", "This Christmas", "Someday We'll All Be Free", and "Little Ghetto Boy". Dutch director David Kleijwegt made a documentary. He has been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Hathaway is also renowned for his renditions of "A Song for You", "For All We Know", "Jealous Guy" and "I Love You More Than You'll Ever Know", along with "Where Is the Love" and "The Closer I Get to You", two of many collaborations with Roberta Flack. He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and won one Grammy Award from four nominations. He previously sang backup on "Killing Me Softly with His Song" that established him, especially on the pop charts.

Behavior management Behavior management can be accomplished through modeling, rewards, or punishment. Behavior management, similar to behavior modification, is a less-intensive form of behavior therapy. This form of management aims to help professionals oversee and guide behavior management in individuals and groups toward fulfilling, productive, and socially acceptable behaviors. Unlike behavior modification, which focuses on changing behavior, behavior management, similar to behavior modification, is a less-intensive form of behavior therapy. Unlike behavior modification, which focuses on changing behavior, behavior management focuses on maintaining positive habits and behaviors and reducing negative ones. Behavior management skills are especially useful for teachers and educators, healthcare workers, and those working in supported living communities.
