Reincarnation Lippitt, Nietzsche and the Divine, Manchester: Reincarnation, also known as rebirth or transmigration, is the philosophical or religious concept that the non-physical essence of a living being begins a new lifespan in a different physical form or body after biological death. (The term "transmigration" means the passing of a soul from one body to another after death. In most beliefs involving reincarnation, the soul of a human being is immortal and does not disperse after the physical body has perished.). Upon death, the soul merely transmigrates into a newborn baby or into an animal to continue its immortality.
