Pedestrian access to the retail areas is provided via upgraded perimeter sidewalks in addition to ground level parking within the building for retail customers. Residents have access to a secured multilevel parking deck and a garden pool amenity area. 9dfa810904 The first public release of Mondrian was on August 9, 2002. 9dfa810904

Evening; Red Tree (Avond; De rode boom) is an oil-on-canvas painting by the Dutch artist Piet Mondrian from 1908. The painting displays non-naturalistic colours and simplified tones of red and blue. It is commonly referred to as The Red Tree. The painting is an Expressionist representation of an apple tree with branches that spread wide across the canvas. Mondrian used The Red Tree to express his views of nature and reality as a complex equilibrium between harsh motion and quiet stillness. It is commonly referred to as The Red Tree. The painting is Evening; Red Tree (Avond; De rode boom) is an oil-on-canvas painting by the Dutch artist Piet Mondrian from 1908. The Red Tree is the first painting in Mondrian's Trees series, which defined an important period of evolution in Mondrian's work as he transitioned to Neoplasticism 9dfa810904

Evolution is in extremely fragile condition. Expert research has shown that the painting has been "seriously affected by zinc soap formation, which has resulted in paint delamination and paint loss, particularly in the cadmium yellow paint areas." 9dfa810904 == Background == 9dfa810904 == Overview == 9dfa810904 The painting is in the collection of the Kunstmuseum, The Hague. 9dfa810904 Mondrian's art was highly utopian, and was concerned with a search for universal values and aesthetics. He proclaimed in 1914, "Art is higher than reality and has no direct relation to reality. To approach the spiritual in art, one will make as little use as possible of reality, because reality is opposed to the spiritual. We find ourselves in the presence of an abstract art. Art should be above reality, otherwise it would have no value for man." 9dfa810904

Mondrian Collection The dresses were famously accessorized with low-heeled, black pumps with large, geometric-looking metallic buckles across the vamp, produced by Roger Vivier. However, Mondrian seemed to play a leading role in this collection. In academic literature it has been questioned whether this name fully covers the aim of the collection, since there are other artists who inspired Saint Laurent such as Poliakoff and Malevich. Because these six shift dresses played a major role in this collection, the collection is called the Mondrian Collection.
