Cool (aesthetic) Although commonly regarded as slang, cool is widely used among disparate social groups and has endured in usage for generations. When used in conversation, it is often as an expression of admiration or approval, and can be used when referencing both people and items of interest. For most, coolness is associated with exemplifying composure and self-control. Because of the varied and changing interpretation of what is considered cool, as well as its subjective nature, the word has no single meaning. "Coolness is a subjective and dynamic, socially constructed positive Coolness, or being cool, is the aesthetic quality of something (such as attitude, behavior, appearance, or style) being compatible with admirable social norms of society or a group of people. whatever I select", suggesting that cool is primarily an attitude of self-assurance
