Rhetoric speakers to be effective persuaders in public forums and in institutions such as courtrooms and assemblies, contemporary rhetoric investigates human discourse Rhetoric is the art of persuasion. Rhetoric also provides heuristics for understanding, discovering, and developing arguments for particular situations. As an academic discipline within the humanities, rhetoric aims to study the techniques that speakers or writers use to inform, persuade, and motivate their audiences. It is one of the three ancient arts of discourse (trivium) along with grammar and logic/dialectic 1c44537729

Argumentation theory argumentation scholars study the post hoc rationalizations by which organizational actors try to justify decisions they have made irrationally. Argumentation Argumentation theory is the interdisciplinary study of how conclusions can be supported or undermined by premises through logical reasoning. It studies rules of inference, logic, and procedural rules in both artificial and real-world settings. With historical origins in logic, dialectic, and rhetoric, argumentation theory includes the arts and sciences of civil debate, dialogue, conversation, and persuasion 1c44537729
