Guide dog use service and assistance animals. At the moment Golden Retrievers, Labradors, Standard Poodles Guide dogs (colloquially known in the US as seeing-eye dogs) are assistance dogs trained to lead people who are blind or visually impaired around obstacles. In several countries guide dogs, along with most other service and hearing dogs, are exempt from regulations against the presence of animals in places such as restaurants and public transportation. The handler might be likened to an aircraft's navigator, who must know how to get from one place to another, and the dog is the pilot, who gets them there safely. The human does the directing, based on skills acquired through previous mobility training. Guide dog breeds are chosen for temperament and trainability. Although dogs can be trained to navigate various obstacles, they are red-green colour blind and incapable of interpreting street signs 29b0a4f26f
