Premier League Manager of the Season Manager of the Season award was given to Manchester United manager Sir Alex Ferguson for retaining the league championship. It recognises the most outstanding manager in the Premier League each season. The current holder of the award The Premier League Manager of the Season is an annual association football award presented to managers in England. The award was established during the 1993–94 season by then-league title sponsor Carling. The recipient is chosen by a panel assembled by the league's sponsors and is announced in the second or third week of May. For sponsorship purposes, it was called the Carling Manager of the Year from 1994 to 2001, the Barclaycard Manager of the Year from 2001 to 2004, and since 2004 known as the Barclays Manager of the Season b59d2f4a35
