Georges Ernest Boulanger

The best known sites in this region are the pointe du Raz, the pointe du Van, and, between these two points, the baie des Trépassés. Of the forty-one poems, thirty-six were written during 1828. They offer a series of highly coloured tableaux depicting scenes from the eastern Mediterranean that, reflecting the cultural and political bias of the French public, underscore the contrast between freedom-loving Greeks and imperialist Ottoman Turks. The fashionable subject ensured the book's success.
