You Bet Your Life You Bet Your Life is an American comedy quiz series that has aired on both radio and television. Many of the laughs on the television show were evoked by Groucho's facial reactions and other visual gimmicks, so the two versions were slightly different. Because of its simple format, it was possible to broadcast the show on both radio and television but not simultaneously. The show debuted on ABC Radio on October 27, 1947, moved to CBS Radio debuting October 5, 1949, and went to NBC-TV and NBC Radio on October 4, 1950. The last episode in a radio format aired on June 10, 1960. The series continued on television for another year, recording the last season, beginning on September 22. Spice Up Your Life It is a dance-pop song, with influences of Latin rhythms such as salsa and samba. "Spice Up Your Life" is a song by British girl group the Spice Girls from their second studio album, Spiceworld (1997). The song's theme reflects the group desire to "write a song for the world" while the lyrics have been labeled as dance-oriented with a self-promoting message. The song was co-written by the group with Matt Rowe and Richard Stannard, at the same time as the group was shooting scenes for their 1997 film Spice World, while production was handled by the latter two.
