Death the death penalty. Some organisms, such as Turritopsis dohrnii, are biologically immortal; however, they can still die from means other than aging. In militaries around the world, courts-martial have imposed death sentences for offenses such as cowardice, desertion, insubordination Death is the end of life, the irreversible cessation of all biological functions that sustain a living organism. Death eventually and inevitably occurs in all organisms. The remains of a former organism normally begin to decompose shortly after death. Something that is not considered an organism can be physically destroyed but is not said to die, as it is not considered alive in the first place. Death is generally applied to whole organisms; the equivalent for individual components of an organism, such as cells or tissues, is necrosis fe4bde47ff
