

The 21st Century Job Search

The rise of a global economy and Third World consumerism marked the beginning of the century, along with increased private enterprise and deepening concern over terrorism after the September 11 attacks on the United States in 2001. The NATO intervention in Afghanistan and the United States-led coalition intervention in Iraq in the early 2000s, as well as the overthrow of several regimes during the Arab Spring in the early 2010s, led to mixed outcomes in the Arab world, resulting in several civil wars and political instability. Beginning in early 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic began to rapidly spread worldwide, causing more than seven million reported deaths and up to 33.5 million estimated deaths, and severe global economic disruption including the largest global recession since the Great Depression in the 1930s. The pandemic remained a global health crisis until mid-2023, it went on to become the fifth deadliest pandemic in history. The early 2020s saw an increase... 2eec8981a9

The 21st century is defined by the calendar rather than by any unifying characteristics of musical style or attitude, and is therefore not an era of the same order as the classical or romantic. However, the century to date can be considered a continuation of the postmodern era that began during the 20th century and differs from the earlier modernist era in matters of attitude more than style. 2eec8981a9 Alarmed by violence and verbal attacks, some French Jews began to emigrate to Israel. By early 2014, the number of French Jews making aliyah (emigrating to Israel) surpassed that of American Jews emigrating. At the same time, 70% of French Jews reported in surveys that they were concerned about insults or harassment, and 60% about physical aggression because of their ethnicity... 2eec8981a9 The International Labour Organization estimates that, by their definitions, over 40 million people are in some form of slavery today. Some 24.9 million people are in forced labor, of whom 16 million people are exploited in the private sector such as domestic work, construction or agriculture, 4.8 million people in forced sexual exploitation, and 4 million people in forced labour imposed by state authorities. An additional 15.4 million people are in forced marriages. 2eec8981a9 At the beginning of the 21st century, antisemitism in France rose sharply during the unrest of the Second Intifada in Israel and the Palestinian territories, as it did in other European nations. In addition, a significant proportion of the second-generation Muslim immigrant population in France began to identify with the Palestinian cause, with some also identifying with radical Islamism. In the early 2000s, a critical debate on the nature of antisemitism in France accompanied denunciation of it in relation to the situation in the Middle East and to Islam. Divisions developed among anti-racist groups. Since 2023, France has experienced a sharp increase in reported antisemitic incidents compared to previous years.

geoeconomically and/or geopolitically dominated by the People's Republic of China, similar to how the "American Century" refers to the 20th century and the "British Century" to the 19th. The phrase is used particularly in association with the idea that the economy of China may overtake the economy of the United States to be the largest in the world. Inside Mainland China, the concept is more often described as the re-rise of China or rejuvenation of China (simplified Chinese: 中国崛起; traditional Chinese: 中國崛起), viewing it as a rightful return of China to its millennia-long status as a leading civilizational state, evident by the "great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation" slogan coined in 2001 by then-paramount leader Jiang Zemin 2eec8981a9
