The game uses random encounter and features turn-based combat, utilizing a system called the "Tactical Arts System." When selecting the Attack command, the player customizes a sequence of attacks, which the character performs upon confirmation. When equipping a weapon, either the Left or Right attack is replaced by Arms. Players can discover powerful techniques - known as Arts - when certain commands are entered in the correct order. All arts can be chained by overlapping compatible sequences. Arts cost AP, which can be recovered by attacking, receiving damage, or using the Spirit command - which also greatly decreases received damage and allows a longer attack sequence on the next turn. Regular arts can be discovered by inputting the correct sequence with enough AP in any given battle or by talking to certain NPCs. Special arts, called Hyper... == History == 4fae8760fa Dark Mist is an action-adventure game. You play as the warrior of light, Artemis, shooting down the forces of darkness. The game is divided into different dungeons, which the hero must hack and slash his way through. The game has an overhead vantage point, making it stylistically similar to the dungeon levels in the first Legend of Zelda game. The hero begins with three "stars" of energy, which are replenished by collecting hearts. In addition to hearts, diamonds, keys and crescent moons are also collected. Sixaxis controls can be utilized to perform a spinning attack that blows back enemies and clears the blinding 'dark mist' from your path. 4fae8760fa == Notes == 4fae8760fa Season of Mist was formed in 1996, while founder Michael S.
