420 Kent Street is a locally heritage-listed church that was built in 1868 in a simplified Victorian Free Gothic style. The land was acquired in 1856 by John McEncroe and was held in a trust for the Roman Catholic Church until February 1868 when the trustees decided to build a new church. The building was first used by the Roman Catholic Church, then as a church school between 1868 until 1883, then as a poor school from c.1905 until 1927, it was then used as the home of the Kursaal Theatre directed by Scott Alexander from 1932 to 1938, the building was then used by St Vincent de Paul Society as a refuge for destitute men, known as the Matthew Talbot Hostel until 1952. Following those uses, the building became home to the Genesian Theatre Company and in 2026, the Divine Playhouse. The building... f4d486b2ce
