Homeschooling The third and final rule is that the curriculum must
Homeschooling or home schooling (American English), also known as home education or elective home education (EHE) (British English), is the education of school-aged children at home or a variety of places other than a school. second rule is the instruction must be able to be visually seen through workbooks, or a video monitor. Usually conducted by a parent, tutor, or online teacher, many homeschool families use less formal, more personalized and individualized methods of learning that are not always found in schools. Some families who initially attended a school go through a deschooling process to decouple from school habits and prepare. The actual practice of homeschooling varies considerably. The spectrum ranges from highly structured forms based on traditional school lessons to more open, free forms such as unschooling, which is a lesson- and curriculum-free implementation of homeschooling 5fafbe1918
