Language assessment Equal weight may be placed on knowledge

(understanding how the language works theoretically) and proficiency (ability to use the language practically), or greater weight may be given to one aspect or the other. Its main focus is the assessment of first, second or other language in the school, college, or university context; assessment of language use in the workplace; and assessment of language in the immigration, citizenship, and asylum contexts. Versant's English and Dutch assessments use phone technology to record the speaking and automated scoring of their speaking tests, and the ETS is currently Language assessment or language testing is a field of study under the umbrella of applied linguistics. The assessment may include listening, speaking, reading, writing, an integration of two or more of these skills, or other constructs of language ability
