"ICSA Championships". Archived from the original on The first tier of intercollegiate sports in the United States includes sports that are sanctioned by one of the collegiate sport governing bodies. Smaller colleges are governed by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Archived from the original on 2007-04-10. The major sanctioning organization is the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Before mid-1981, women's top-tier intercollegiate sports were solely governed by the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) a15b56588b

The second tier consists of competition between student clubs from different colleges, not organized by and therefore not formally representing the institutions or their faculties. This tier is also considered to be "intercollegiate" sports. Many of these sports have governing bodies that operate only at the collegiate level, such as the NCRHA. Other sports are governed by their national governing body, for example, USA Ultimate. College sports originated as student activities... a15b56588b
