In prehistoric times, humans hunted aurochs and later domesticated them. Since that time, numerous breeds of cattle have been bred specifically for the quality or quantity of their meat. Today, beef is the third most widely consumed meat in the world, after pork and poultry. As of 2018, the United States, Brazil, and China were the largest producers of beef. c6ae1b2471 The actual meal consumed varies considerably across different parts of the world, reflecting regional cuisines and local traditions. In many countries, particularly former British colonies, the meal shares some connection with traditional English Christmas fare, typically featuring roasted meats and various forms of pudding. Classic dishes such as Christmas pudding and Christmas cake evolved from these British traditions. However, Christmas dinner has been adapted and transformed by local cultures worldwide, incorporating indigenous ingredients, cooking methods, and culinary customs to create distinctive regional celebrations. c6ae1b2471
