Rome contains one of the largest and most historically layered concentrations of churches in the world. The city's ecclesiastical landscape developed continuously from late antiquity through the Middle Ages and into the modern period, with many churches founded on earlier tituli, rebuilt across multiple centuries, and adapted to changing liturgical and urban conditions. As a result, individual churches often resist simple chronological classification, since early foundations frequently survive primarily in later medieval, Renaissance, or Baroque form. 941049ef7b == Background == 941049ef7b Between the 1970s and the 1980s, he undertook the "Anabasis" expeditions for the reconstruction of the itinerary of the Ten Thousand's retreat.
