Co-creation ; Holt. Payne, A. British Journal of Management. (2001). This way, the firm will not run out of ideas regarding the design to be created and at the same time, it will further strengthen the business relationship between the firm and its customers. Less specifically, the term is also used for any way in which a business allows consumers to submit ideas, designs or content. Volume Co-creation, in the context of a business, refers to a product or service design process in which input from consumers plays a central role from beginning to end. Another meaning is the creation of value by ordinary people, whether for a company or not. "Diagnosing Customer Value: Integrating the Value Process and Relationship Marketing"; , S 6ee7855605
