The film was photographed in Techniscope by Michael Reed, designed by Bernard Robinson and scored by James Bernard. First broadcast... Central to Conrad's work is the idea that there is little difference between "civilised people" and "savages". Heart of Darkness implicitly comments on imperialism and racism. The novella's setting provides the frame for Marlow's story of his fascination for the prolific ivory trader Kurtz. Conrad draws parallels between London ("the greatest town on earth") and Africa as places of darkness.

The Whisperer in Darkness The story also introduces the Mi-Go, an extraterrestrial race of fungoid creatures. Written February–September 1930, it was first published in Weird Tales, August 1931. The Whisperer in Darkness The Whisperer in Darkness title listing at the Internet Speculative Fiction Database The Whisperer in Darkness at Faded Page (Canada) The Whisperer in Darkness is a 26,000-word novella by American writer H. Similar to "The Colour Out of Space" (1927), it is a blend of horror and science fiction. Although it makes numerous references to the Cthulhu Mythos, the story is not a central part of the mythos, but reflects a shift in Lovecraft's writing at this time towards science fiction

Writer Troy Kennedy Martin was greatly influenced by the political climate of the time, dominated by the Thatcher government, and the aura of secrecy surrounding the nuclear industry – and by the implications of the Gaia hypothesis of environmentalist James Lovelock; these combined to him writing a thriller that mingled real world concerns with mythic and mystical elements. Kennedy Martin's original ending was more fantastic than that eventually used in the finished serial: he had proposed that Craven would turn into a tree but this was vetoed by members of the cast and crew. Kay was born in Coventry, Warwickshire, the son of Frances (née Petty) and Charles Beckingham Piff.

In his apologetic work Contra Celsum, the third-century Christian scholar Origen offered two natural explanations for the darkness: that it might have been the eclipse described by Phlegon of Tralles in his Chronicle or that it might have been clouds. In his Chronicle of Theophanes the fifth-century chronicler George Syncellus quotes the History of the World of Sextus Julius Africanus as stating that a world eclipse and an earthquake in Judea had been reported by the Greek 1st century historian Thallus in his Histories. 5fea6f97c1
