Existential crisis How to recognize and cure life-related sadness in gifted people, 2013. Alan Watts on meaningless life, and its resolution Existential crises are inner conflicts characterized by the impression that life lacks meaning and by confusion about one's personal identity. Cognitive components encompass the problem of meaninglessness, the loss of personal values or spiritual faith, and thinking about death. Marc, Existential Depression. Behavioral components include addictions. Emotional components refer to the feelings, such as emotional pain, despair, helplessness, guilt, anxiety, or loneliness. They are accompanied by anxiety and stress, often to such a degree that they disturb one's normal functioning in everyday life and lead to depression. Their negative attitude towards meaning reflects characteristics of the philosophical movement of existentialism. The components of existential crises can be divided into emotional, cognitive, and behavioral aspects 2e6a8810df
