Creationism 48, "Evolutionary Creation (or Theistic Evolution) asserts that the personal God of the Bible created the universe Creationism is the religious belief that nature, and aspects such as the universe, Earth, life, and humans, originated with supernatural acts of divine creation, and is often pseudoscientific. In its broadest sense, creationism includes various religious views, which differ in their acceptance or rejection of modern scientific concepts, such as evolution, that describe the origin and development of natural phenomena. Self-actualization A Way of Being. Rogers, Carl R. p. Boston: Self-actualization, in Maslow's hierarchy of needs, is the highest personal aspirational human need in the hierarchy.). Long received in psychological teaching as the peak of human needs, Maslow later added the category self-transcendence (which, strictly speaking, extends beyond one's own "needs"). It represents where one's potential is fully realized after more basic needs, such as for the body and the ego, have been fulfilled. Theories of personality (7th ed. Jess (2009). 692737d6c8 The term creationism most often refers to belief in special creation: the claim that the universe and lifeforms were created as they exist today by divine action, and that the only true explanations are those which are compatible with a Christian fundamentalist literal interpretation of the creation myth found in the Bible's Genesis creation narrative.
