The photograph was taken on May 8, 2009, in the Oval Office of the White House by Souza, who was the chief official White House photographer. Philadelphia's father, Carlton Philadelphia, had worked as a staff member of the United States National Security Council for two years. He was leaving the job and had been invited to bring his family to the Oval Office for a "departure photo" with Obama. Jacob Philadelphia quietly asked the president: "I want to know if your hair is like mine." Obama asked him to repeat the question, then replied, "Why don't you touch it and see for yourself?" and lowered his head. Souza's photograph captures the moment that Philadelphia touches Obama's head. 00c8185f11 == Synopsis == 00c8185f11 In December 2012, Prime Minister John Key said he would apologise in person to the families of those killed for the Government's weak regulations and inadequate inspection regime. In 2017, the Government established the Pike River Recovery Agency, with re-entry expected by March 2019. It reported to the Minister Responsible for Pike River Re-entry, Andrew Little. Re-entry was expected to cost NZ$23 million over three years. In February 2021... 00c8185f11
