| Grade inflation CBSE called a meeting of all 40 school boards early in 2017 to urge them to discontinue “artificial spiking of marks”. was in 2012. For this to be grade inflation, it is necessary to demonstrate that the quality of work does not deserve the high grade. CBSE decided to lead Grade inflation (also known as grading leniency) is the general awarding of higher grades for the same quality of work over time, which devalues grades. However, higher average grades in themselves do not prove grade inflation f12a5f4114                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
