ethnomusicologist, best known for his numerous field recordings of folk music during the 20th century. Lomax recorded thousands of songs and interviews for the Archive of American Folk Song, of which he was the director, at the Library. Lomax produced recordings, concerts, and radio shows in the U. He was a musician, folklorist, archivist, writer, scholar, political activist, oral historian, and filmmaker. He collected material first with his father, folklorist and collector John Lomax, and later, alone and with others. Citizen Activist", by Ronald D 4e784b9115

Geopolitics such as international relations and security studies. According to multiple researchers, the term is currently being used to describe a broad spectrum of concepts, in a general sense used as "a synonym for international political relations", but more specifically "to imply the global structure of such relations"; this usage builds on an. Geopolitics usually refers to countries and relations between them; it may also focus on two other kinds of states: de facto independent states with limited international recognition and relations between sub-national geopolitical entities, such as the federated states that make up a federation, confederation, or a quasi-federal system. This difference in disciplinary perspectives is addressed by Bert Chapman in Geopolitics: A Guide Geopolitics (from Ancient Greek γῆ gê 'earth, land' and πολιτική politiké 'politics') is the study of the effects of Earth's geography on politics and international relations Alan Turing Turing is widely considered to be the father of theoretical computer science. Copeland, 2006 p. Collins, Jeremy (24 June 2020). 378. Retrieved 31 October 2013. "Alan Turing and the Hidden Heroes of Bletchley Park: A Conversation Alan Mathison Turing (; 23 June 1912 - 7 June 1954) was an English mathematician, computer scientist, logician, cryptanalyst, philosopher and theoretical biologist. He was highly influential in the development of theoretical computer science, providing a formalisation of the concepts of algorithm and computation with the Turing machine, which can be considered a model of a general-purpose computer.
