Arts-based environmental education Different from other types of outdoor or environmental education which offer room for aesthetic experiences, AEE turns the tables in a fundamental way. The first is that it refers to a specific kind of environmental education that starts off from an artistic approach. The approach has two essential characteristics. The approach has two essential characteristics Arts-based environmental education (AEE) brings art education and environmental education together in one undertaking. Arts-based environmental education (AEE) brings art education and environmental education together in one undertaking. A second fundamental characteristic is that AEE is one of the first contemporary approaches of bringing together artistic practice and environmental education in which practitioners also made an attempt. Art is not an added quality, the icing on the cake; it is rather the point of departure in the effort to find ways in which people can connect to their environment 944062ddc0
