Education in India includes a two-year pre-university course (PUC) after the completion of secondary education (10th grade). The approximate ratio of the total number of public schools to private schools in India is 10:3. Under various articles of the Indian Constitution and the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, free and compulsory education is provided as a fundamental right to children aged 6 to 14. The PUC is commonly referred to as junior college Education in India is primarily managed by the state-run public education system, which falls under the command of the
