Shopkeepers may manage their own independent corner shop or run a franchise store on behalf of a retail chain (see Dealer (franchising)). Unlike store managers who usually work for a large retailer, shopkeepers normally have overall responsibility for a store. Independent shopkeepers include (but are not limited to) grocers, corner shopkeepers, newsagents, butchers, bakers, booksellers, florists, and antique dealers.

Shopkeeper Generally, shop employees are not shopkeepers, but are often incorrectly referred to as such. The Creative Shopkeeper. London: Thames & Hudson. The Random House Dictionary of the English Language, New York: A shopkeeper is a retail merchant or tradesman; one who owns or operates a small store or shop. At larger companies, a shopkeeper is usually referred to as a manager, since the owner is not able to manage the business being a single shopkeeper, so this term could apply to larger firms (in particular, multiple shops) generally and be a separate duty.
