Connectivism Perceiving connections between fields, ideas and concepts is a core skill. learning networks cannot be consolidated. It emphasizes how internet technologies such as web browsers, search engines, wikis, online discussion forums, and social networks contributed to new avenues of learning. Learning does not simply happen within an individual, but within and across the networks. Technologies have enabled people to learn and share information across the World Wide Web and among themselves in ways that were not possible before the digital age. Criminon Criminon is promoted by the Church of Scientology International. Criminon International, a non-profit, public-benefit corporation managing the Criminon program, was spawned from Narconon International in 2000, and is part of Association for Better Living and Education's public outreach programs. Independent experts contend that methods used by the program are not supported by any scientific studies. The program includes courses with questions requiring written answers. The responses are evaluated by volunteers and the Criminon is a program for rehabilitating prisoners using L. Ron Hubbard's teachings. "social betterment" programs cd32d88793

Queensland Core Skills Test The Queensland Core Skills Test, commonly referred to as the QCS Test or simply QCS, was a statewide test formerly completed by all Queensland year twelve The Queensland Core Skills Test, commonly referred to as the QCS Test or simply QCS, was a statewide test formerly completed by all Queensland year twelve students who were eligible for an Overall Position, and was optional (but beneficial) for tertiary entrance rank students. The test was held for the final time on 3-4 September 2019, and will be replaced with external examinations as part of the new Queensland Certificate of Education system. The QCS test was the only statewide external exam conducted in the two senior years of secondary education (Years 11 and 12). These ranks were used to gain entrance into tertiary degrees and courses. In-school subject rankings given to students were scaled and moderated using the performance of the subject cohort at individual schools on the QCS test cd32d88793
