History of diabetes The term diabetes traces back to Demetrius of Apamea (1st century BC). Ayurvedic physicians (5th/6th century BC) first noted the sweet taste of diabetic urine, and called the condition madhumeha ("honey urine"). For a long time, the condition was described and treated in traditional Chinese medicine as xiāo kě (消渴; "wasting-thirst"). In 1674,

Thomas Willis suggested that diabetes may be a disease of the blood. Wellcome The condition known today as diabetes (usually referring to diabetes mellitus) is thought to have been described in the Ebers Papyrus (c. and renal diseases : being an inquiry into the connexion of diabetes, calculus, and other affections of the kidney and bladder, with indigestion". 1550 BC). Physicians of the medieval Islamic world, including Avicenna, have also written on diabetes. Johann Peter Frank is credited with distinguishing diabetes mellitus and diabetes. Early accounts often referred to diabetes as a disease of the kidneys 4aef22e38b

The result was Bizarre adventure. The AfD is being closed many years later, because it was never properly closed back then, because it was never visible, because it was never transcluded on any of the daily logpages.

Technically, it has still been open this whole time.
