System of National Accounts The first international standard was published in 1953. Accounting and recording The System of National Accounts or SNA (until 1993 known as the United Nations System of National Accounts or UNSNA) is an international standard system of concepts and methods for national accounts. The pre-edit version for the SNA 2025 revision was adopted by the United Nations Statistical Commission at its 56th Session in March 2025. It is nowadays used by most countries in the world. Manuals have subsequently been released for the 1968 revision, the 1993 revision, and the 2008 revision. Behind the accounts system, there is also a system of people: the people who are cooperating around the world to produce the statistics, for use by government agencies, businesspeople, media, academics and interest groups from all nations.
