Causality which Aristotle meant “explanation” or “answer to a ‘why’ question”. Aristotle categorized the four types of answers as material, formal, efficient, and final Causality is an influence by which one event, process, state, or object (a cause) contributes to the production of another event, process, state, or object (an effect) where the cause is at least partly responsible for the effect, and the effect is at least partly dependent on the cause. The cause of something may also be described as the reason for the event or process 42c05c4549
