History of Russia After the 13th century. Kievan Rus' ultimately disintegrated as a state due to the Mongol invasions in 1237–1240. The traditional start date of specifically Russian history is the establishment of the Rus' state in the north in the year 862, ruled by Varangians. The state adopted Christianity from the Byzantine Empire in 988, beginning the synthesis of Byzantine, Slavic and Scandinavian cultures that defined Russian culture for the next millennium. In 882, Prince Oleg of Novgorod seized Kiev, uniting the northern and southern lands of the Eastern Slavs under one authority, moving the governance center to Kiev by the end of the 10th century, and maintaining northern and southern parts with significant autonomy from each other. The "memorandum" contained an analysis of the situation in the country, proposals The history of Russia begins with the histories of the East Slavs. Period", which later received the unofficial
