Christian views on alcohol Throughout the first 1,800 years of Church history, Christians generally consumed alcoholic beverages as a common part of everyday life and used "the fruit of the vine" in their central rite—the Eucharist or Lord's Supper. They held that both the Bible and Christian tradition taught that alcohol is a gift from God that makes life more joyous, but that over-indulgence leading to drunkenness is sinful. However, the alcoholic content of ancient alcoholic beverages was significantly lower than that of modern alcoholic beverages. animals by walls, hedges, and manned watchtowers. In Hebrew, grape juice need not ferment before it is called wine: "When the grapes have been crushed Christian views on alcohol are varied. The low alcoholic content was due to the limitations of fermentation and the nonexistence of distillation methods in the ancient world
