History of education For example, in Athens, during the 5th and 4th century BC, aside from two years military training, the state played little part in schooling. In ancient India, education was mainly imparted through the Vedic and Buddhist learning system, while the first education system in ancient China was created in Xia dynasty (2076–1600 BC). During the Han dynasty (206–221 AD), boys were thought ready at age The history of education, like other history, extends at least as far back as the first written records recovered from ancient civilizations. The earliest known formal school was developed in Egypt's Middle Kingdom under the direction of Kheti, treasurer to Mentuhotep II (2061–2010 BC). Historical studies have included virtually every nation. The first schools in Ancient Rome arose by. specific skills but rather to produce morally enlightened and cultivated generalists". In the city-states of ancient Greece, most education was private, except in Sparta 5c6a4183ad
