There doesn't appear to be a serious contention here that the close was wrong, given the discussion. Whether the discussion went how it ought to have is somewhat more contentious, but there would need to be a strong case for that, and it isn't being made. At least, as far as I can read it, though it appears to depend on what the words "Jews", "History", and even "in" mean, without elucidating this specifically. One could relitigate at AfD II: Electric Boogaloo; but would be well advised that the article seems to be evolving rapidly, and it's likely wise to wait at least until it stabilises before going through that rigamoral.
