Last stand Some last stands have become a celebrated part of a fighting force's or a country's history, especially if the defenders accomplished their goals (or, in rare cases, defeated their attackers). Last stands loom large in history, as the heroism and sacrifice of the defenders exert a large pull on the public's imagination. During World War I, the A last stand, or a final stand, is a military situation in which a body of troops holds a defensive position in the face of overwhelming and virtually insurmountable odds. In defeat the hero of the Last Stand achieves the greatest of victories, since he will be remembered for all time. slaughtered to a man. Troops may make a last stand due to a sense of duty; because they are defending a tactically crucial point; to buy time to enable a trapped army, person, or group of people to escape; due to fear of execution if captured; or to protect their ruler or leader 5ce2979051
