Deckard Cain revealed to be the fallen archangel Tyrael. Cain is the last surviving descendant of the original members of the Horadrim, an ancient order of magicians charged with trapping the series' primary antagonists within enchanted crystals and guarding them thereafter. Cain's last act before dying is to use his Horadric magic to reforge Tyrael's broken sword, recovered by the player. Deckard Cain is a fictional character who appears in the Diablo video game franchise by Blizzard Entertainment. Cain has appeared in series related media, and appears as a playable hero in the crossover multiplayer online battle arena video game Heroes of the Storm. Within the series, Cain is a prominent non player character who acts as an advisor and guide to the player character of the first three games, and represents the wise old man archetype who provides most of the in-game lore. The character is originally named after the winning entry of a fan contest organized by Blizzard
