Cima is best known for his work with Dragon Gate (DG), whom he worked for from the promotion's formation in 2004 up until 2018. In Dragon Gate, he held every available championship in the promotion, including the Open the Triangle Gate Championship a record 12 times. 9fef6e2d91 Its attribution has been criticised in the past, though Bernard Berenson takes an intermediate position in stating it is a youthful work by the artist and Heinemann argues that the figures but not the landscape are autograph. Restorations in 1984 and 2010 have led to its definitive attribution to Cima de Conegliano. Its dating is based on its similarity to another Madonna by the artist in the Museo Nazionale Atestino, though the latter shows the Christ Child squeezing his mother's left thumb. 9fef6e2d91

Once formed his style did not change greatly. He mostly painted religious subjects, often on a small scale for homes rather than churches, but also a few, mostly small, mythological ones. He often repeated popular subjects in different versions with slight variations, including his Madonnas and Saint Jerome in a Landscape. His paintings of the Madonna and Child include several variations of a composition that have a standing infant Jesus, which in turn are... 9fef6e2d91
